Administration and Faculty

Our school has one of the finest administrative staffs and groups of teachers in the entire state. Their training, instruction, and faithfulness have prepared many young people for future years.

Organizations

Senior High's unity is expressed through the organizations of the homeroom, class, club, and student body. The united effort displayed in all areas, especially voting, is only one example of our pride in Senior High.

Sports

The BLACKBIRDS have reached an all-time high in their athletic endeavors. As new sports are added, the others are improved through experience and training. The Athletic Department proves a great boost to school spirit.

Contents

Personalities

The quality of the individual students at Senior High is evidenced in their accomplishments during the year. This year many honors have been bestowed upon the members of the student body.

Classes

The stream of high school life flows on fed by the enthusiasm of the sophomores, the aggressiveness of the juniors, and the growing maturity of the seniors.

Advertisements

We wish to thank our many loyal advertisers sincerely in the name of Rocky Mount Senior High School. May your advertisement bring you not only increased business, but also satisfaction that you have helped a worthy cause.

Prologue

Year-end means a time for meditating . . . evaluating . . . reminiscing . . . for examining the past months . . . trying to understand ourselves . . . our thoughts . . . our relation to each other . . . for seeing ourselves as. . . .

SOPHOMORES . . .

I'm here at last; I'm one of them! Senior High students used to be ten feet tall, but now they are not — or at least I'm not. No, I haven't changed, but coming here is supposed to be a big transition. The tempo is faster, the work is harder, and most of the time nobody knows I'm here except the other sophs; we have to stick together. I feel unsure and uneasy; yet, I am becoming more a part of things as when I pull for our team. Mostly I'm still a little frog in a big pond.

JUNIORS . . .

Now I have really arrived. I'm settled in for a long stay. The future stretches before me as a wide vista, broken by only occasional thoughts of my past days here. I'm in the swing of things more than I was last year. Perhaps I'm beginning to feel a responsibility to myself and my school, though that American history test or that geometry quiz isn't quite as important as the camaraderie of growing up. I've got things to do — people to see.

SENIORS . . .

Those dumb sophs probably think I'm downright dignified with College Algebra and college applications thrust nonchalantly under my arm. They think that I'm on top. Well, I thought I would be, but I'm only at the basement landing going to the first floor again. As life looms ahead, I feign bravado, but as in a cycle I am again uneasy. Questions pop into my mind that never bothered me before. I am told that I ask the questions of the Ages; yet, the Ages have not answered them. I alone have asked and I must answer.

A SENIOR HIGH STUDENT . . .

We were three but we were one. We were a living, vital body of individuals in a common frame. As a whole, that frame was a cut above the rest. We were progressive. We were changing. We were growing. Individually our growth took different forms and directions. As to our future? "Qui Vivra Verra!"

Here is the record of our year that has passed. . . .

O ur Year to Remember

According to every other photo in this book the 1964 school year was a clear and sunny one. Not so! We had our rainy days, too.

The Christmas Dance marked the beginning of the Christmas season at Senior High.

Sixty-five per cent of the '64 seniors were college bound, so College Day was important to most of us. Here, Miss Ann Sugg from Duke talks to interested students.

Homecoming, the high point of the football season, next to the championship game, was the night to remember especially for these girls. On the faces of Ginger, Jackie, and Barbara we can see the emotions of the moment and of the year.

Dedication

The men who compose our coaching staff are not only good coaches but nice fellows. The ease with which they work together has paid off in a unified athletic program at Senior High and a string of state championships. Athletics is their first love, and they sometimes seem to go at it like kids in a sandlot baseball game. However, the job of building a winning team or really any kind of team is one requiring long hours, hard work, and an abundance of patience. Because of the devotion of these men not only in building outstanding teams for Senior High but also in making fine young men of their players, we gratefully dedicate the 1964 HI-NOC-AR to Coaches C. V. Lundy, Christopher A. Carpenter, Dudley Whitley, Henry Trevathan, John Stott, and Don Stallings.

Coach Carpenter and his star quarterback, Chris Junior, work out before rooters Kitty, Ann, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Coaching isn't his only job. With a book in his hand and a grin on his face, Coach Whitley leads his classes through the history of the world.

Perhaps Coach Lundy is wondering just how much of Mrs. Lundy's mashed potatoes will be required to fill Jerry.

Mr. C. M. Edson, Principal

Dear Student Body,

I am happy to take this opportunity to congratulate the student body on a most successful and spectacular school year. Our achievements, both in the classroom and on the playing field, have been unparalleled in the history of public education in our state. The morale of the student body and the evidence of school spirit has reached an all-time high. We are exceedingly proud of our students, our school, and our accomplishments.

Congratulations to the Class of 1964. We can point with pride to their many contributions to the life and progress of our school program. We wish for your continued success in the future.

The 1964 HI-NOC-AR has vividly portrayed the outstanding activities for the past year. This volume will serve to recall many fond memories of Rocky Mount Senior High School. The HI-NOC-AR staff is to be commended for reviewing the year's highlights so clearly and faithfully.

C. M. Edson

The Rocky Mount City School System is greatly enriched by the leadership of Mr. D. S. Johnson. As superintendent, Mr. Johnson possesses the qualities of a devoted administrator who has his work very much at heart. Rocky Mount has a fine reputation among the schools of the state and nation as a result of his efforts as well as those of his administrative staff and the school board. A real friend of young people, Mr. Johnson has devoted his whole life to them.

Mr. Hoy Cobb now serves in the double capacity of assistant principal at Senior High and coordinator of the audio visual center for the school system. As assistant to Mr. Edson, Mr. Cobb aids in such administrative duties as; guidance, discipline, attendance, and routine reports. Providing a central film library and visual aid program are his two main responsibilities as coordinator.

Mr. Hoy Jefferson Cobb, Jr., Assistant Principal

Mr. D. S. Johnson, Superintendent

Preparation, training, and experience are the traits which qualify Dr. Fields to render outstanding service in the field of school administration. His duties include heading the curriculum and supervision program, coordinating the National Defense for Education Act, directing personnel, and substituting for Mr. Johnson in his absence.

Dr. W. O. Fields, Jr., Assistant Superintendent

The Superintendent's office staff are: Mrs. Yvonne P. Edwards, Mrs. Phylis M. Weldon, Gwen Joyner, Jo Ann Hill, Mrs. Linda Armstrong, and Mrs. Frances Speight, seated.

The chief aim of the Rocky Mount Board of Education is to provide the highest type of academic program under the leadership of the most qualified instructors in the most attractive and comfortable surroundings possible. To that end the members give of their time and energy in countless hours of discussion before decisions relating to any given situation are made.

Mr. E. W. Pegram, Jr., Administrative Assistant

Mr. Pegram, as Administrative Assistant, constantly provides for the smooth operation of the physical aspects of our school life. In this capacity, he supervises the maintenance of the buildings and grounds, proper operation of the cafeterias, and the janitorial service.

Mrs. Bessie Carr
Secretary and Registrar

It has been said that without Mrs. Carr in the Main Office, nothing in Senior High could function as it should. This is probably true. Mrs. Carr's duties are those of a secretary, bookkeeper, file clerk, and registrar. Her wonderful personality, sense of humor, lively spirit, and love for her work make her a friend and inspiration to us all.

Miss Kate Parks Kitchin
Guidance Counselor

Miss Kate Parks Kitchin's official title is Guidance Counselor, and in this capacity she comes into contact with every student at Senior High. It is through her patience, understanding, and helpful suggestions that many students come to know themselves better and are better prepared for life after high school. Members of her senior English class find the experience invaluable.

The office assistants are Harriet Parker, Linda Melton, Margarette Alford, Faye Robbins, Pat Hasty, Marge Powell, Josephine Vann, Jackie Williams, Emily Sellers, Margaret Dudley, Susan Strandberg, Barbara Stussie, Brenda Griffin, and Linda Jordan.

The fourteen office assistants serve our school in many ways. These girls aid Mr. Edson and Mrs. Carr by typing, answering the telephone, taking messages, running errands, checking students in and out of school, and performing varied other tasks.

The job of the guidance assistants is to aid Miss Kitchin, the Student Organization, and the student body in any way possible. At least one of these girls is in the Guidance Center during each period to assist anyone who comes to the center.

The guidance assistants standing are: Linda Stallings, Lynne Evans, Jenny Hammond, Johann Vaughan, and Tempie Shearin. Seated is Lona Batten.

When it comes to managing the school cafeteria, Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Eakes do a terrific job. To keep the students happy, many different meals must be planned and planned well. These two ladies realize this, and they provide excellent, well-balanced meals that suit the students' needs. Besides planning the meals, Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Eakes must see that the personnel prepares the food within a limited time schedule because once a lunch period starts, there is no rest for either one of them.

R. M. S. H. S.

"Thirty cents, please," is the statement that June Brantley, Judy Jackson, Mrs. Carr, LaNell Barnes, and Harriet Parker make as they take up the money for the plate lunches. Being a cashier is a very important part of the cafeteria system, and these cashiers are efficient and courteous. The cashiers are allowed to eat lunch in peace before the mad rush of the three lunch periods starts. These valuable workers take pride in their work and service for the school.

If you want just a hotdog and milk or something on that order, the place to go is the Snack Bar. The Snack Bar Assistants on the front row are: Moodie Smith, Linda Robbins, and Joyce Cockrell; on the back row are: Frank Waruszcak, Ike Proctor, Kent Taylor, and Jimmy Cooper. These eager assistants are always willing to help a student find just the right snack. They always greet one with a kind, "May I help you?"

Once the orders of the day are issued by the Cafeteria Managers, it is up to the Cafeteria Staff to do the job. Mrs. Brooks Daughtride, Mrs. Florence Smith, and Mrs. Susie Winstead do their job and do it well! It is not easy to stop, when you are rushed with a lunch period, to help one student find a piece of pie or cake that he wants. These ladies are always willing to help any student the moment he walks into the cafeteria.

PERSONNEL

A clean school! The students at R. M. H. S. want a clean school that is a credit to our community. The hard and sometimes unrewarding work of the janitors is handled very efficiently by Walter Howard and James Walker. Their day has just begun when the students' day ends. They stay long hours after school cleaning the school for the next day. In the morning they are here bright and early to open the school and get it ready for that day.

The work of keeping the school clean at all times is always demanding and sometimes a very hard job. The janitors can not do the work alone. Therefore the maids, Allene Howard and Augusta Suggs, do their equally important job with efficiency and pride. Many times their day is prolonged because students stay after school to do one thing or another and the maids cannot clean the rooms until the students are gone. Our school could not function properly without them.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The 1963-64 school year brought several changes in the English department. A new course, English 3200, was taught on an experimental basis by Mrs. Bailey. In this new approach each student progresses according to his own rate. The textbook is in frames of work. Whether the subject matter is the agreement of subject and predicate or introductory prepositional phrases, an explanation is presented and followed by exercises to test the skills learned.

Another experimental class was Developmental Reading, taught by Mrs. Lundy. In this course the student is trained to read with a faster rate and an increased comprehension.

The other courses taught in the department are divided into three main groups to allow the students to work effectively according to their own ability or progress.

Many hours of intense study at the public library go into the preparation of a senior theme.

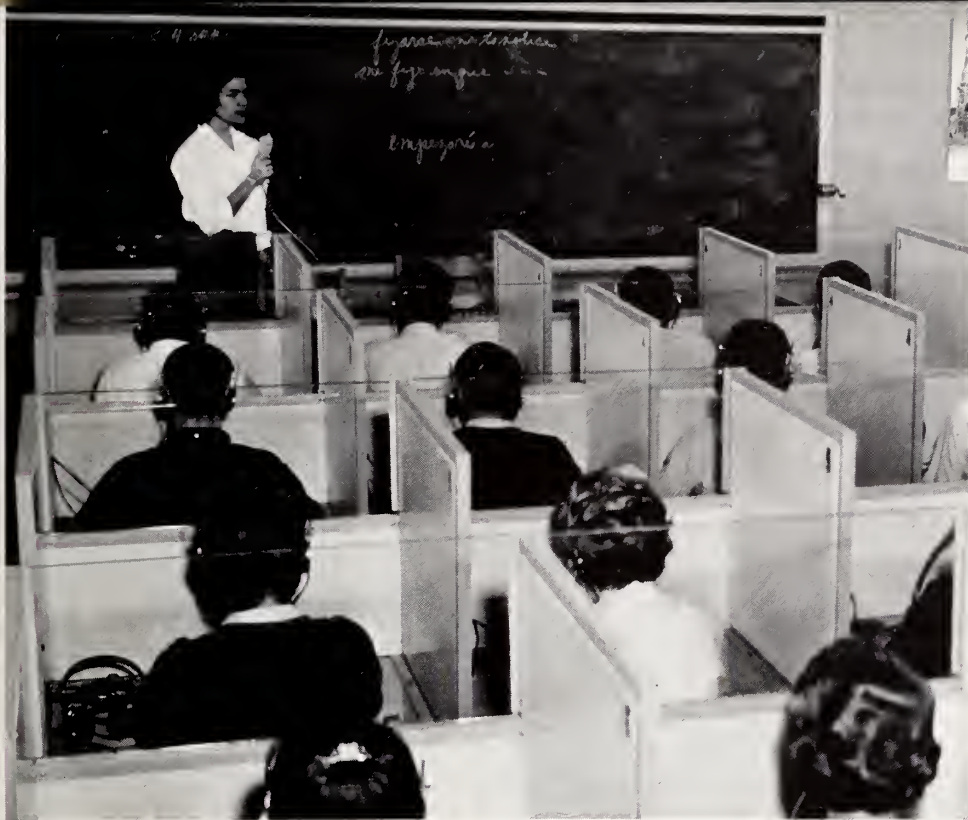

Individual reading machines teach speed and comprehension to students in Developmental Reading.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Rocky Mount Senior High School's four year programs in Spanish and French, plus its second year Russian class, give our school one of North Carolina's finest modern language departments.

Because of the added emphasis on hearing and understanding the language, students and teachers are making much use of our thirty booth language lab, the two smaller individual recording rooms, and our supply of tape recorders and record players. Filmstrips and supplementary books and magazines enable the student to learn not only the language but the customs and traditions of the people who speak it.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The courses available to a Senior High student in the field of social studies are many and varied. Through the facilities of WUNC-TV, Senior High offers classroom broadcasts in both American and world history. Regular classes in these subjects, along with courses in economics, sociology, government, and psychology, are also offered. This year a one-semester course in world geography has been added to the curriculum.

The courses in the Social Studies Department are designed to teach the important facts about man, his past, the world in which he lives, and his apparent future. Lectures, research papers, and current events projects are used in many classes to bring the facts to the student.

You'd better write it down quickly. He doesn't say it but once!

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

One of the most interesting required courses for seniors is Physical Education. It is an elective for sophomores and juniors. This department's prime concern is not to give students a play period, but to strengthen them physically and mentally.

Vigorous exercise, marching drills, an acquaintance with the major and minor sports, and a sense of good competitive action are what the boys and girls receive from their instructors. This instruction is a vital part of the student's life that he will always be glad that he had. At times it is hard on the individual, but it is worth all the sweat and hard work that he puts into it when he can see the physical results of his actions.

Accuracy in archery is the prime concern of Brenda Griffin as she takes aim.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Courses ranging from Algebra I to introductory calculus are available to students in the Mathematics Department at Senior High. This department has been expanded to meet the needs of college-bound students.

Several advanced courses are available to students with superior mathematical ability. Among these are trigonometry, Algebra III, analytical geometry and introductory calculus, and the combined course in plane and solid geometry. The latter enables a small percentage of students to complete the requirements for plane and solid geometry in one year instead of the three semesters usually required. Advanced as well as regular classes are available in Algebra II and plane geometry.

A new mathematics laboratory was installed in Room 208 at the beginning of the school year. This laboratory is being used experimentally by several advanced mathematics classes. Classes using it have been observed by representatives of other school districts in North Carolina.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The Science Department aims to inspire the student toward the development of the scientific attitude. It has always been important in the high school program to stress the knowledge of science, and in today's technical world it is even more important. In past years Rocky Mount Senior High has offered biology, chemistry, and physics, as a means of keeping up with the world around us. Recently, advanced biology and advanced physical science have been added to the curriculum. These two are offered for the college bound student as a deeper study into the sciences.

Through the use of demonstrations, experiments, lectures and discussions in the class room and the projects and reading out of class, the Science Department tries to develop the interests of the student.

Through experimentation in chemistry, Mr. Norris shows Joy Craig, Bill Anderson, and Randall James how the distillation process works.

In an advanced biology course, Aundrea Deaton delves into the study of microscopy. With the added use of the camera the observation can be recorded for further study.

In physics, Mr. Privott demonstrates the fundamental of the cloud chamber to Steve Kelley, Charles Worrell and Tommy Kennedy.

BAND, CHORUS, DRAMATICS

Rocky Mount Senior High is extremely proud of its marching band, known for its precision drills and stirring music. Especially inspiring are the compositions of the Pep Band, whose chief contribution is to promote school spirit.

Here one catches a glimpse of Mr. Parry directing the Senior High School chorus in one of its delightful numbers.

Christmas, Easter, Commencement, and many other occasions are made more delightful by the harmonious melodies of the R.M.S.H. chorus.

LIBRARY AND ART

The Library at Rocky Mount Senior School offers ideal surroundings for quiet research and study. It seats approximately ninety-two and stores approximately two thousand books not including reference materials. Capable assistants under the direction of Mrs. Barnes help the students in all ways possible.

Creativity is the basis for progress in our modern society. The art department at Senior High is designed to foster creativity. Students are given the opportunity to experiment with a variety of materials and methods. Throughout the two-year course offered, they are encouraged to use these opportunities. The first year offers painting, sculpture, and architecture. The second year covers advertising, graphics, and ceramics.

BUSINESS AND D. E.

Business Education courses offer many opportunities to both college-bound students and to those who plan to start work immediately after graduation from high school. Typing I and II, while designed primarily for those planning a secretarial career, are invaluable aids to college-bound students. Shorthand I and II and Bookkeeping are available to others preparing for a career as a secretary, bookkeeper, or in some other form of office work. A practice room, equipped with office machines, is used by the girls in the office practice class.

Distributive Education combines part-time work experience with classroom training. In the classroom, D. E. Students learn the economics of wholesale and retail selling, the rights of the customer, the duties of a salesperson, and such mechanics of salesmanship as recording sales and setting up displays.

Courses in these two departments enable students to become qualified employees and useful citizens.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS AND HOME ECONOMICS

Home economics is a course in home-making, not house keeping. Its primary objectives are to inspire and teach girls to be better family members in their present homes, and to establish good homes in the future.

A typical day in this department might be as varied as bathing a baby in Senior Homemaking, preparing a family dinner in second year, and making a dress in first-year home economics.

There are three courses offered in the shop building which enable boys to develop their creative skills. General Shop, which emphasizes experience in wood working, is an elective offered to all boys. Mechanical drawing is offered to only the boys in the eleventh and twelfth grades who plan to study engineering. Boys who are interested in working with metal are offered Vocational Machine Shop.

Here goes another ensemble for the fashion show.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION OFFERS

The students at Rocky Mount Senior High compose the Student Organization. Its purpose is to provide a means for teaching democratic processes and promoting worthwhile projects.

Realizing that there is strength in unity, the 1963-64 Student Organization has strived to instill a feeling of unity in all students for all activities within the school. We have tried to create in everyone's mind a singleness of purpose—the advancement of our school through co-operation among the students. The three levels of our organization, the homeroom, the class, and the general organization, have worked efficiently and have experienced success. A special project of the President's Cabinet was a Leadership Training Workshop, designed to increase the leadership ability of elected officers within the school. The Student Organization has worked diligently in its efforts to re-establish our school in the A. F. S. Foreign Exchange Program.

We hope that we have created a feeling of unity that will remain in Senior High long after the present students have graduated.

to begin a highly successful year with a new office, a new advisor, Miss Diane Disney, and new talent.

The unusual beatnik kick-off assembly set a rather different pace for the year's activities. The staff gathered first hand feature material from Madame Nhu's speech in Raleigh, political rallies, the Voice of America site in Greenville, and the State Penitentiary.

Perhaps the most notable of the group's achievements was the organization of The Order of the Black Feather, an honorary society designed to site students outstanding in school service and spirit. In addition to charter member Johnny Brooks, the members include Nancy Severance, Mac Tilley, Carol Mortimer, and Kathy MacDiarmid. The local organization set a precedent for establishing similar groups in other high schools in the state.

The staff continued the traditions of sponsoring the Beauty Court for the Junior-Senior, and of having the Miss Print Contest. Instead of requiring each girl to collect penny votes for Miss Print, organizations around the school could sponsor a candidate by paying an entry fee. The girls were interviewed and judged by three people from the community, and the winner was crowned in an assembly with a Valentine theme.

The staff worked diligently to publish a good Blackbird and to keep the students at Rocky Mount Senior High School well informed. Officers were Editor, Jean Joyner; Business Manager, Anne Chandler; Advertising Manager, Cheryl Andrews; and Circulation Manager, Jeff Kincheloe. Ellie Watson was Feature Editor, Jay Kridel and Chuck Taylor were Sports Editors, and Debbie Edwards and Jeannette Hughes were News Editors.

In addition to learning the fundamentals of journalism, the junior staff helped write copy and do many other things. In February the junior staff, composed of both juniors and seniors, put out their own issue of The Blackbird.

One of the highlights of the year was the trip to New York to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention. Nine members of the staff and Miss Disney spent four wonderful days in the big city.

"Snidley took the bird, and from him no more we heard," chants the staff during their kick-off assembly with a beatnik setting.

Folding and counting papers are routine procedures before the homeroom distribution of THE BLACKBIRD.

CHOIR SINGS AT SCHOOL ASSEMBLIES AND CIVIC MEETINGS

The Choir offers additional work to the most interested of the chorus students. They are given practice in reading, music, singing, and performing before an audience. Aside from the physical techniques taught, the Choir offers a great deal of enjoyment in its wide variety of music. Mr. Parry, the director, leads them in many kinds of music including classic, modern, religious, and Broadway and show music.

Throughout the school year, the Choir gives many performances for our school, local civic groups, and out-of-town schools and organizations. During the Christmas season, it performs at the Heritage Inn. On December 20th, it presented Christmas music at the school assembly. Other performances include the Spring Concert and commencement.

The Choir injects Christmas Spirit into students and teachers at the annual Concert.

Theresa Pollard, pianist, accompanies as the Choir sings.

BAND IS BIGGER AND BETTER IN '64

This year the band swelled to over sixty members. Though it was not as large as the bands of some of our opposing football opponents, it more than made up for its size in quality. The band followed the football team to three out-of-town games and played at all of the home games. These occasions, the playing of the pep band at our basketball games and at the receptions of our victorious teams, and the Christmas, winter, and spring concerts combined to make the band a real leader in school spirit and asset to our school.

The band lines up smartly to perform at half-time.

The majorettes are: kneeling, Donna Whitley, Sandra Stone, head majorette, and Jennifer O'Neal; standing, Mary Bruce Haggerty, Pat Hartness, Diane Price, and Mimi Munden.

Service Club President Larry Modlin and Advisor Mrs. Best discuss upcoming plans with the other officers: Jean Joyner, Chaplain; Bobby Mills, Vice President; Johann Vaughan, Treasurer; Candace Puckett, Corresponding Secretary; and Susan Sodeman, Recording Secretary.

Holt Felmet, Mary Tanner, and Ron Barden lower the flag each afternoon after school.

SERVICE CLUB OBTAINS NEW FLAG FOR SCHOOL

One of the most active clubs at Senior High is the Service Club, whose primary aim is service to the school. Presenting devotionals in assembly, organizing the Homecoming parade, raising and lowering the flag daily, and selling programs at home football games are a few of its many useful activities. In addition, as a climax to a series of Holy Week programs, club members present an Easter Sunrise Service. This year in a special patriotic assembly, the club presented the school with a new American flag donated by the local American Legion.

CONFETTI—RIBBONS—GOOD SPORTS GIRLS—RAH! RAH! RAH!

With a spirit of enthusiasm and desire, the members of the Good Sports Club help the athletic teams of Senior High to victory. Selling ribbons, making corsages, cutting confetti and decorating the goal posts at home games are obvious efforts of this group of hardworking girls. At the close of the athletic year the Good Sports Club entertains all athletes at a picnic. But these girls help with things other than sports. The attractively decorated auditorium lobby and the outside display at Christmas show the earnest effort of the girls to assist in other ways. This club forms an integral part of our school for it combines pep, fun, service, and a group of attractive girls to add spirit and cooperation to all phases of school life.

Making ribbons gives Mary Bruce Haggerty, Katherine Nicholson, Ann Waters, and Jackie Oakley an opportunity to chat and help their club.

Fear of heights is not a good quality for Good Sports girls, especially if they have to climb ladders to decorate goal posts as Dell Farmer and Brenda Griffin are doing.

MACHINIST TRADE TAUGHT IN MACHINE SHOP

Vocational Machine Shop teaches boys to work with machines and metals. Projects which have to be machined from metals such as brass candle holders, special bolts, and other round objects are turned on the lathe. Replacement parts for the machinery are made by the boys.

There is also an area which contains provisions for electric and acetylene welding. Electric welding plays a major part in the fabrication of metals in industry. Acetylene welding makes it possible to heat and shape metals to the desired shape.

Auto mechanics is taught, too. The boys learn to clean and install plugs and points, muffler repair, brake servicing, and other maintenance of this nature.

This class is under the instruction of Mr. Neal Adkins.

GREAT BOOKS CLUB EXPLORES IDEAS

Members of the Great Books Club are, seated: Marty Mebane, Lindsey Dennis, Katherine McCall, Mrs. Bailey, advisor, and Maria Strickland. Standing: Lawrence Rowland, Warren Cottingham, John Drew, George Eatman, David Horn, and Bill Wiggins.

This year for the first time, some of the great thinkers of our school have united to form the Great Books Club. Each week they explore such topics as infinity, evolution, and religion. The Great Books of the Western World, a fifty-four-volume set, containing books written during the past thirty centuries serve as a basis for discussions. The club owns this set of books, and one of the members entered an essay contest in connection with the Great Ideas Program. The members of the club also strive to gain a better understanding of themselves and others through an insight into the philosophy of man-kind. Of course, all members of the club are avid readers.

Even though the Booster Club is young, it has grown to be a progressive and school-spirited group of junior and senior girls. As the name implies, the purpose is to boost all school activities. The requirements for membership are simply that the girls be willing to participate in in- and out-of-school activities, and that they be interested in every phase of school life.

Pat Marks, Barbara Stussie, Ross Garris, Allison Nichols, and Roxanna Bryant are helping to decorate a bulletin board demonstrating the Booster Club's activities.

A major project of the club has been the compilation of a scrapbook honoring each State Championship team. Another project is placing attractive posters in each classroom to remind students of the week's athletic events.

Future projects include plans to boost all social events and Edsonian productions.

BOOSTER CLUB ENCOURAGES SCHOOL SPIRIT IN ALL ACTIVITIES

D. E. PROGRAM TRAINS YOUNG PEOPLE FOR CAREERS IN BUSINESS

The Distributive Education program trains boys and girls for careers in distributive businesses—wholesale, retail, and services. This plan combines part-time work experience with practical in-school instruction, so that upon graduation these young people will be well-qualified employees and useful citizens.

Members of the D. E. Clubs of America learn to serve as leaders and followers, and have the opportunity for state and national recognition through their club organization.

This program not only helps the youth of Rocky Mount but it also gives the city's merchants and the townspeople a look at what young people can accomplish through hard work.

A few club members are pleased at meeting and talking with Governor Sanford, at the first store in Tarrytown—Montgomery Ward.

The 1963-64 officers are: Lawana DeBoe, president; Diane Hudson, secretary; John Marshall, vice president; and Betty Meyer, treasurer.

LIBRARY SCIENCE CLUB TRAINS FUTURE LIBRARIANS

The members of the Library Science Club learn the skills of managing a library from their advisor, Mrs. Martha Barnes. Some of their duties as members of this club are the following: planning and putting up bulletin board displays, helping students find books and periodicals, typing cards for the card catalogue, selling paperbacks, keeping the circulation file at the charging desk, and gathering information from magazines for the vertical file.

GREAT MUSIC CLUB WINS FIRST PLACE IN HOMECOMING PARADE

In an informal atmosphere the members of the Great Music Club acquaint themselves with a variety of music. Although the emphasis is on the classics, the members listen to and enjoy opera, symphony, jazz, organ, and folk music. The club has had charge of bulletin board during the year which has shown the school the purpose of their group and encouraged the development of an appreciation for good music.

RADIO BROADCASTERS COVER BEATLES AND BIRDS

The Radio Broadcasters Club, which was begun in 1935 by Mr. Cyrus Edson, is one of the oldest clubs in Rocky Mount Senior High School. This club has been outstanding through these years, for it has served as a training ground for future careers. Several former members of this club are now working professionally in the area of television and radio. Students have been given the opportunity to participate in broadcasting and to study the technical aspects of this form of communications. The students working with their advisors, Mr. Edson and Mr. Norris, organize the programs for "The News and Blues of Rocky Mount Senior High" and "The Radio Broadcasters on the Air", presented each Saturday morning in co-operation with two local radio stations.

Howard Anderson, local radio announcer, instructs G. C. Hughes, Charles Dupuy, and Mahalia Mooring in the basic principles of radio.

First semester officers of the Radio Broadcasters Club are, seated: G. C. Hughes, President; Mahalia Mooring, Vice-President; standing: Charles Tharrington, Treasurer; and Beth Whitley, Secretary.

"TO SERVE CLASSMATES, SCHOOL, AND COMMUNITY. . ."

As stated in the Kudos Club Constitution, its purpose is "to serve classmates, school, and community, and to work unselfishly for others." The evidence of this purpose appears all over the school and community. Now in its ninth year of service, this valuable club has taken its place as an important part of our school. Not only was there an excellent purpose acquired, but also the fact that Kudos, derived from the Greek word "Kydos", meaning "glory", gives a further insight into the club's activities and purpose. This

"glory" is not a personal glory but a glory of serving and helping others.

Since this club is a service club, its work is varied. The main money-raising project is selling plastic HI-NOC-AR covers. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Lillian Kennedy, the Kudos Club members also serve as ushers at the P. T. S. A. open house and serve coffee and doughnuts in the cafeteria after the Easter Sunrise Service each spring.

The Kudos Club selected Shaula Costilow, Sue Carmichael, Jeff Kincheloe, and Charles Worrell as their officers.

Donna Taylor, Charles Worrell, Betty Fryar, and Anna Overton prepare for the sale of plastic HI-NOC-AR covers.

Riding in the Phalanx Club float were Bill Jackson, Beverly Padgett, Rick Draper, Wade Pitt, Mickey Bailey, and Leonard Veillette.

PHALANX CLUB SERVES RMSH

The Phalanx Club is responsible for many of the services performed for Senior High and community. Among its yearly duties are: electing the basketball player of the week, presenting the basketball player of the year with a trophy, providing a needy family with Christmas gifts, placing prayer cards in the cafeteria during Holy Week, and assisting community service groups with their projects. The club tries to promote school spirit by participating in school events and offering its services whenever the opportunity arises.

SOS CLUB HAS MANY ACTIVITIES

Rendering "Service Over Self", the members of the S O S Club contribute their time to provide many worthwhile school activities. A major contribution of this group is the attractive basketball programs on sale at each home game. Members of the club are responsible for the soliciting of advertising as well as the sale of these programs.

Faye Collins, Sam Stanley, Joanne Hathaway, and Evelyn Ferguson prepare to take food and toys to the needy family the club has taken as its Christmas project.

Other activities of the club are: serving refreshments to the referees at home athletic games, maintaining the indoor lobby gardens, selling concessions at the basketball games, and providing Christmas gifts for a less fortunate family.

Under the able guidance of its advisors, Miss Judith Creekmore and Miss Dorothy Craighill, the S O S Club takes its place among the outstanding school-spirited clubs.

Ellie Watson, Allan Gurganus, Donna Whitley, Mike Chaney, and Judy Maurer are shopping for things to sell in the concession stand at the baseball games.

"Keep coming back-and if at last you lose the game of right
Let those who whipped you know at least they, too, have had a fight."

Blackbirds hit the dummies in rugged pre-season practice.

BIRDS TAKE

The 1963 Blackbirds of R. M. S. H. S. followed a record team and went them one better when they produced Rocky Mount's first all winning conference season.

The Birds, ranked number one in pre-season polls, took an early tumble at the hands of 3-A power Kinston. This defeat seemed but a catalyst for the charges of Coach Chris Carpenter. Determination and hustle characterized the Blackbirds the rest of the year all the way to Bowman-Gray Stadium and another State Title taken again from the illfated Reynolds Black Demons.

The defense piles high to block Fayetteville's extra point attempt. The Blackbirds are: Ken Reams (64), Darrell Johnson (30), John Alexander (76), and Wayne Daughtride (40).

SECOND STRAIGHT FOOTBALL CROWN

On the way to the top, RM smashed the title hopes of Fayetteville's Bulldogs and semi-finalists Page High School of Greensboro.

Rocky Mount used a powerful defense which limited the opposition to little more than 4 points a game to complement its many faceted offense which averaged better than 19 points per outing.

By Bob Williams, Sports Editor,
Rocky Mount Evening Telegram

Hail To The Champs! And when you say it, shout it loudly and proudly, for Rocky Mount Senior High School's Blackbirds still reign as the king of them all, wearing a state championship crown that shone brightly again at the close of the 1963 football season.

It was this '63 team that placed the fourth diamond in the crown, coach Chris Carpenter's Blackbird football powerhouse sweeping another state championship as Rocky Mount Senior High continued the most fantastic march to high school athletic acclaim in the history of North Carolina.

When RMSHS teams of the year before became the state's marvelous Triple Crown Champs by taking state titles in football, basketball, and baseball, it didn't seem that there was another sports world left to conquer. But the Blackbird gridders of 1963 did it again with another great season that produced the fourth straight state title, a remarkable feat that no other school in North Carolina has ever accomplished.

The title came in Winston-Salem, where the Blackbirds beat Reynolds High School 14-13. It was a hard-fought game, and perhaps that was fitting, for this was a football season when honors were not to be easily won. In fact, early in the season there were doubts that this Blackbird team was of championship caliber.

Those doubters, however, did not take into consideration a proud Blackbird determination that had played such a major part in the Triple Crown sweep the year before. After a sluggish start, the football charges of Coach Carpenter dedicated themselves to an all-out championship effort, and there was no stopping the march after that.

There were big games along the way that set the championship stage—a 20-13 triumph over title-hopeful Fayetteville that gave RMSH the Eastern 4-A Conference lead, a 13-6 win over tough Durham that kept the Birds on top, and a 6-0 squeaker by rugged Raleigh Broughton in the final regular-season game that clinched the conference title.

In the state playoffs the Blackbirds opened with a show of power, romping past Greensboro Page High 42-0. It was not to be that way in the finals against Reynolds, the Birds winning the biggest of the big ones on the golden kicking toe of extra-point expert Jerry Lundy.

Coach Carpenter called this championship the result of the finest display of team play he had ever seen, but like all team championship marches this one had its individual stars. Tackle John Alexander and end Billy Warren reaped most of the all-star honors, making All-Conference and All-State and also gaining All-America mention.

Halfback Digit Laughridge was another of the bright stars, the junior powerhouse ranking himself among the top backs ever at Senior High. And defensive end Brent Milgrom smashed opposing offenses with such consistent devastation that he stood out as one of the finest defensive stars in the state.

There were others who played vital parts in Coach Carpenter's effective two-platoon system—ends Jeff Croom and Bunn Woodard, tackle Jerry Lundy, guards David Parker, Don Bennett, Monk Reams, and Don Rabon, backs Jimmy Arrington, Joe Swaim, Darrell Johnson, Craig Quick, Wayne Daughtridge. In fact, name every man on the squad and you find someone who had a part in helping achieve the title.

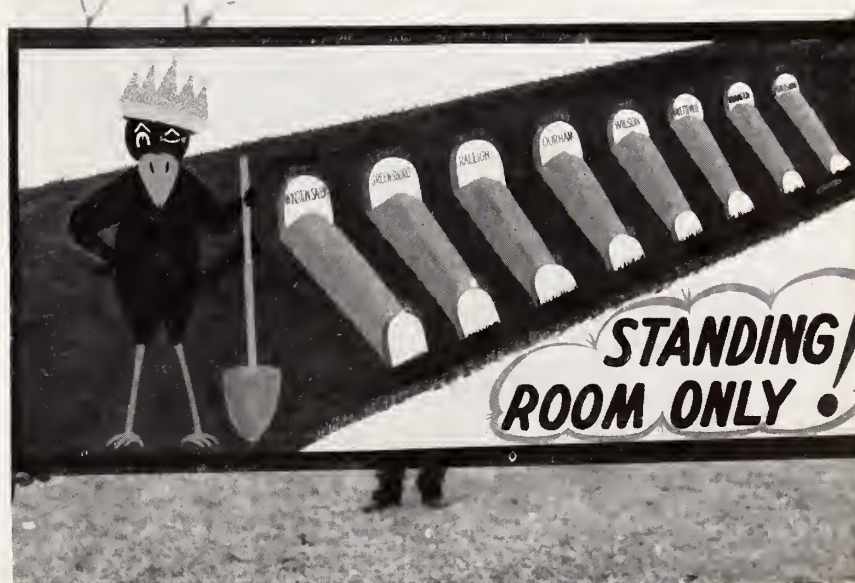

It's a happy moment for Blackbird players and fans as Coach Chris Carpenter and Captain John Alexander receive the Championship trophy from Reynolds' principal.

Jerry Lundy, John Alexander, Jimmy Arrington, and Digit Laughridge take coaches Bill Lundy and Chris Carpenter on a victory ride.

JUNIOR VARSITY GRIDDERS COMPLETE FINE SEASON

Head J. V. coach, Dudley Whitley, produced with the help of John Stott another fine team in the tradition of all RM grid squads, strong defensively and built around desire.

The quality of RM's future Blackbirds improved during the year to give them a creditable 5-3-1 record.

BLACKBIRD WRESTLERS

Inexperience with a new sport kept RM's wrestling team from scoring a team victory during the '63-'64 season. But RM's grapplers, made up almost entirely of Juniors and Sophomores, began to beat the drums for next year as the season closed in Goldsboro at the conference tourney.

Speed and desire play an important part as Ray Hundley pins his opponent.

Jerry Lundy and Monk Reams add bulk to the wrestling team.

MONOGRAM CLUB

All boys who receive varsity letters in any sports competition are eligible for membership in the Monogram Club. The club supports athletic, scholastic, and social phases of school life. The members of the Monogram Club discuss and plan methods by which our fine athletic department may be improved.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The beauty and the cheering of the energetic Junior Varsity Cheerleaders helped the J. V. teams compile impressive records this year. They were always on hand to cheer their teams to victory.

CHEERLEADERS

"Victory-----Victory-----that's our cry! V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!" was certainly typical of the enthusiastic yells of the Rocky Mount Senior High School Cheerleaders this year. As Blackbird fans traveled all over the state following the Blackbird Champions, their rousing yells and enthusiastic cries were led by the cheerleaders as they boosted our team on to victory.

This year, under the direction of their new advisor, Mrs. Roxanne Morris, the cheerleaders decided, as a new project, to serve refreshments to the out-of-town cheerleaders during the half-time at the football games. This was just one of the many ways in which they were able to promote good sportsmanship and school spirit between our school and our rival schools. Another new project was that of sending cards to some of the sick in our community. In this way they were able to bring get well cheer to many people.

The cheerleaders proudly wore their new black monogrammed sweaters at many ballgames this year. They were bought with money donated by civic clubs and businessmen.

The Cheerleaders boosted team spirit at bonfires before many of our games.

Competition between the classes was keen as the Cheerleaders led the Student body in cheers during a pep rally.

The Rocky Mount Senior High School basketball team did not boast a winning record this year, but showed promise of good things to come. If the Birds can polish up their fine talent you can expect them to break loose in the future. Coach Bill Lundy's Blackbirds suffered some heart-breakers as they fell defeated to nine conference foes while taking two victories.

The season started on a sad note as Kinston rapped the Birds twice and Greenville took the Rocky Mount five once. The Birds came back however, to clip Greenville 63-62 in an overtime win that rounded out the non-conference play before Christmas.

When conference play started after Christmas, the Birds were on the road against Fayetteville's tall quint. The Bulldogs proved to be too tough for the Blackbirds as they fell 51-40. Wilmington came to town the following Friday to eke out a close contest, 42-40.

It's all smiles as coaches C. V. Lundy, H. T. Trevathan, and Dudley Whitley head for a conference tilt.

BLACKBIRDS SUFFER BUT SHOW PROMISE

Warren Broughton pulls in a valuable rebound against the Raleigh Caps.

Jeff Croom goes up for two against Wayne Mallard of Durham.

The Birds got hot at Raleigh's Enloe High School and won 58-44. Broughton's rough Caps handed the Blackbird five a 61-50 setback; later that same week the Birds could not cope with Durham's hot shooting and were set down 51-41.

The Birds upped their record to 3-7 when they sprang loose to a 70-56 victory over Goldsboro. The Blackbirds took their second straight victory as they dumped cellar guarding to Wilson 72-51.

A beautiful rally by the Blackbirds feel short as Fayetteville won 48-42. When the luckless Birds traveled to the treacherous Brogden Hall in Wilmington, they tasted defeat once again 48-39.

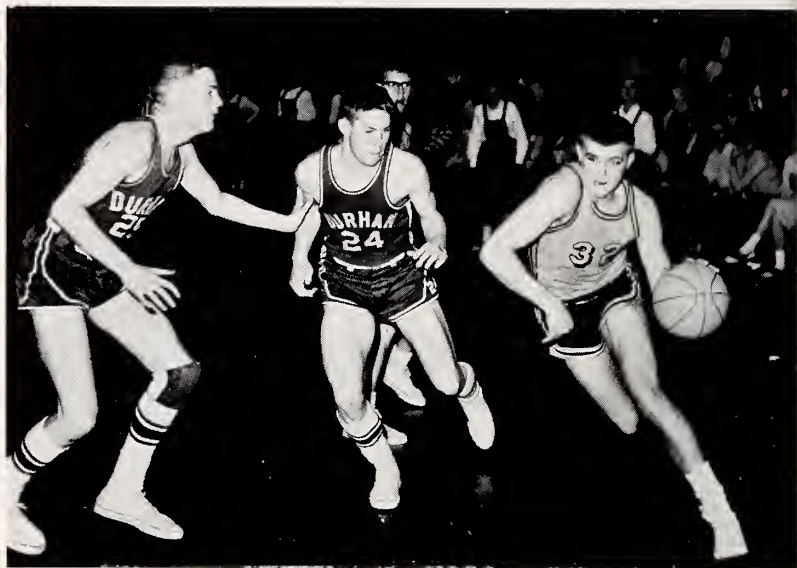

Enloe visited for a non-conference clash and pressed all night for an upset victory 50-39, over the Birds. The hustling Rocky Mount squad led Raleigh Broughton until the closing minutes when Doug Bridges got red-hot to down the Birds 68-64.

The Birds fell to Goldsboro 43-37 in taking their eighth home defeat of the year.

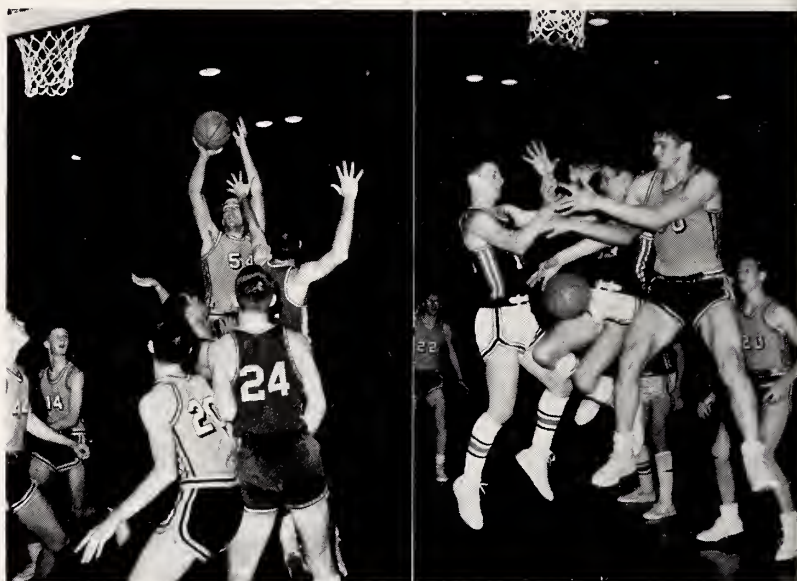

The Birds closed their road season at Durham as the Bulldogs slashed R. M. 80-46.

Jeff Croom put his "patented" two hand jumper up against Wilmington.

Blackbird captain, Billy Warren, drives for two against Durham.

Our two big men on the move!

Managers of the team were: David Parker, Brack Godwin, Larry Deaton, Thurman Pierce, and Johnny Viverette. They served faithfully even in the rough spots.

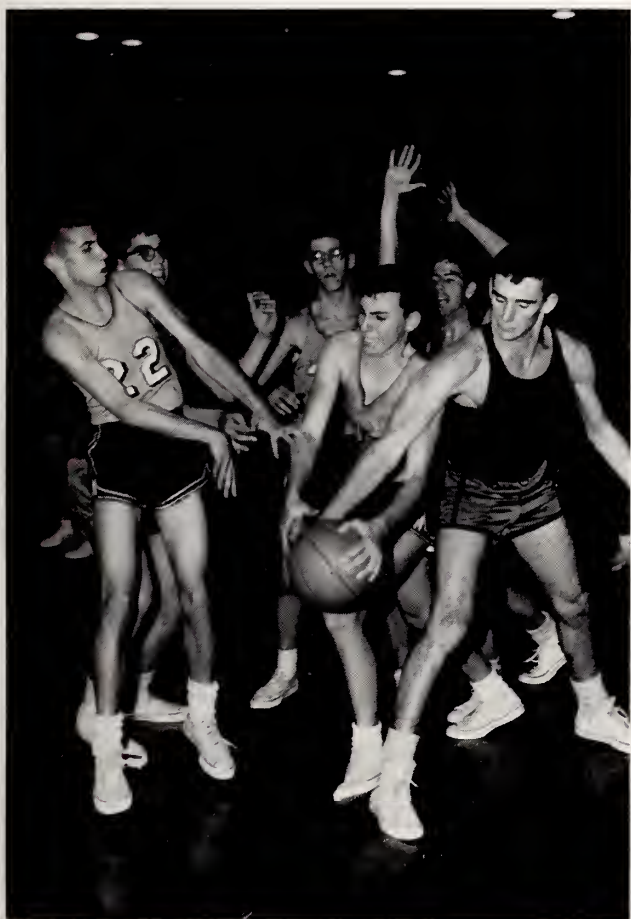

J.V. basketball team members are: kneeling, Bert Stevenson, Bunn Woodard, Steve Caddell, Henry Amerson, Robert Edwards, Bert Carter; standing, Eddie Baysden, Rusty Edmondson, Bill Robbins, Tommy Jones, Danny Williford, Dillon Rose.

1963 BLACKBIRDS CAPTURE

On June 6, 1963, the highest dreams of all R. M. fans came true. A clean sweep of all three major sports had been accomplished, for the baseball heroes had defeated Greensboro for the third straight state 4-A championship in one year.

The championship climaxed the finest baseball season in R. M. S. H. history, as the Birds compiled an outstanding record (14-6) while marching to glory. The baseball team, losing only to Wilson and Goldsboro, displayed a tremendous amount of desire, sportsmanship, and cooperation. The pressure was on the Birds when they had beat Durham and then defeat Goldsboro for the Conference crown, but with high spirits and ex-

Coach Dudley Whitley greets his son Dee after Championship game.

Dennis Newell picks up an extra base against Page High School in the finals.

The Birds make their bid for the play-offs as Dennis Newell slides in home against Goldsboro.

THIRD STATE 4-A CHAMPIONSHIP

cellent playing the team took both victories and were headed for the state 4-A play-offs. At the play-offs the Birds were equally successful, sweeping a two-of-three series from West Mecklenburg and then conquering Greensboro's Page High School for the state championship.

The Birds went the distance under the coaching of Dudley Whitley and Johnny Stott. Jim Daniels, Jim Coats, Digit Laughridge, and Darrell Johnson all turned in outstanding offensive play, while Danny Talbott, Steve Peterson, and Jimmy Arrington pitched effectively for the Birds.

Blackbirds Jim Daniels, Jim Arrington, and Danny Talbott boast their trophy as coaches Dudley Whitley, Johnny Stott, and Jimmie Armstrong look on.

Large crowds turned out to congratulate the victorious Blackbirds.

Golfers who made R. M. a strong conference contender are: Ken Weeks, Graham Campbell, Jim Thornes, Steve Caddell, Gene Phipps, Bill Lee, Mike Hux, and Terry Britt.

'63 Golf Team Finishes Third In Conference

Rocky Mount's '63 golf team, led by letterman Terry Britt, finished a strong third after having led the conference until the last three matches. Other men important in Rocky Mount's team effort were: Bill Lee, Gene Phipps, Keen Gravely, Steve Caddell, James Thornes, Mike Hux, and John Alexander.

Tennis Team Shows Future Potential

The Blackbird net squad faced a tremendous rebuilding job in '63 with only letter man George Ramey returning.

Rocky Mount finished last in conference play although the Blackbirds made some strong showings. The spark of a brighter future began to glow as the R. M. Netters scored a late season victory over a strong Wilmington team.

Blackbird netters take a breather during a rough workout. They are: Bill Wiggins, David Jones, Bob Marshburn, Chuck Taylor, George Ramey, Ronnie Barden, Westray Battle and Bunn Woodard.

Track Squad Finishes Fine Season

R. M.'s '63 track team began its season owner of a new track enabling them to participate on a more competitive basis. The 880 relay team proved this by making a strong bid for the state title only to fall short as the sun set on another year.

Members of the '63 track team are: Dennis Williamson, Kenneth Reams, Wayne Daughtridge, Bobby Mills; second row, Brent Milgrom, Bill Anderson, Jim Clack, and Wyn Godwin.

GINGER RYALS — 1964 BEAUTY QUEEN

The official judges for Rocky Mount Senior High's 1964 Beauty Court were Wayne Hardin, head coach of United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland; Mrs. James Marshall, Midshipmen's Social Director; Roger Stauback, All American quarterback; and Captain Sheldon Kinney, Commandant of Midshipmen. This panel found the selection so difficult that they asked the entire brigade of midshipmen to help them. Pictures of the contestants were printed in The Log along with an official ballot for voting. The HI-NOC-AR is happy to present "The Navy's Choice."

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

RUSS NORRIS

Russ is usually on the scene with the right idea and the follow through to get the job done. He has proven this by the capable way he led his class through Junior-Senior and graduation preparations as President of his class his Junior and Senior years. Russ has, in addition, worked in church and scouting and has the unusual hobby of flying an airplane. This versatility contributes to Russ's ability to win friends and influence people!

LARRY HIGH

Larry's alertness, purpose, and high standards make him liked by all. He has the ability to achieve academically and in his community. His individuality and characteristic of thinking for himself show his maturity. Larry's contributions to Senior High have ranged from class and homeroom offices to membership in the National Honor Society. He has been recognized as an outstanding individual by being chosen as Rotary Boy of the Month. His friendship, an asset to all who know him, is one to be greatly coveted.

CAMILLA REID

Camilla has the double charm of quiet dignity appropriate for a Senior, and the gay, fun-loving sweetness of a young lady. Her service to the school and community takes many roles. Secretary, honor student, Miss Print contestant, D. A. R. district winner—this list of credits shows that citizenship, talent, scholastic achievement, integrity, and hard work are the winning ingredients of a high school success. In spite of the time Camilla spends working for others, she finds time to be well-rounded Camilla.

NEAL ADKINS

Neal is dependability personified. His wonderful mind for details and ability to say clearly what he means has made him a most capable President of the Student Organization. Neal's broad scope of interests ranges from a love of the outdoors to music and academics. He has flexible appeal and a sense of loyalty to his school and fellow students. He has been honored as a member of the National Honor Society, Rotary Boy of the month, and Typical Youth.

JEAN HAYWORTH

Courtesy, dependability, and a warm personality are key words in describing Jean Hayworth. As Chairman of the Social Committee and a member of the HI-NOC-AR staff, Jean has shown her desire to serve. She is a loyal supporter of school projects and an active participant in many fields. Jean is a quick learner and takes responsibility for her work in stride. Ready to be called upon and ready to serve—that's Jean!

GINGER RYALS

Busy always, Ginger finds time to be friendly and courteous. Recognized not only for her beauty, poise, and charm, she has been honored as a delegate to Wildacres and by various elected offices. Ginger is gifted with a beautiful voice and uses it for cheering as well as singing! In spite of her many extra-curricular activities, Ginger is an honor student. It is easy to see why one so interested and so interesting is so well liked.

DAVID PARKER

Who could ask for a better all-around boy than "Dave" Parker? David is superior in everything he does, be it sports or academics. His warmth, personality, consideration, aptitude, integrity, and willingness to serve wherever he can, are equaled by only the best. David has been a leader in his class throughout high school, and his future should be extremely successful, because he has the ability and the perserverance to achieve great things!

JACKIE SMITH

The charm and graciousness of the traditional lady of the South becomes more than tradition when one knows Jackie. Her loveliness equaled with her ability to get along with others makes her the congenial person she is. She is at home playing the organ or piano, cheering, singing, or just having a good time. Her humility and concern for others give Jackie a seriousness that many students are lacking.

JACK CUMMINGS

Jack's contributions to Senior High are wide and varied, as are his interests. From favorite pastimes of golf and stamp collecting to more serious, studious pursuits, Jack is a winner. His persuasive manner, teamed with his ability to speak in public, gives him the talent to lead. He prepares for his future responsibilities as a citizen by being interested in current affairs. As a photographer, exceptional student, and young adult, Jack has proven himself an outstanding Senior.

KATHY MACDIARMID

Kathy's effervescence spreads wherever she goes. A bright smile, adorns her face. Even more than her outward attractiveness, Kathy has an inward beauty of deep, sincere, Christian concern for others. Her unselfishness makes her contributions to Senior High of greater value than those of many. Her cheering enthusiasm permeates her life and like her smile, is contagious. Whether at school, church, or work, Kathy is ready to lend a hand, and to be not only an excellent leader, but a good follower.

JOHN ALEXANDER

Intelligence and athletic ability are only a few of the many outstanding qualities possessed by John Alexander. Athletically, John, as captain of the "Mighty Birds", led them onward to their second state championship. Scholastically, he has proven himself by being a Morehead nominee; and combining brains with brawn, has won a full athletic scholarship to Duke University. By no means limited to these two fields, John endeavors to enjoy many fields of life.

JEAN JOYNER

Jean's efficiency, conscientiousness, and dependability are the main components of her exceptional work at Senior High. Not only does she excel academically, but she is also outstanding in other capacities of service. Jean puts her best foot forward as Editor of The Blackbird, as an active churchworker, or as a supporter of school activities. Her broad, mature outlook gives her an insight beyond her years. She says "yes" to life and accepts the challenge.

N.H.S. MEMBERS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION AT CAMP LEJEUNE

Character, Scholarship, Leadership, Service—these are the characteristics required of a student for membership in the National Honor Society. The Wita A. Bond Chapter holds impressive candelight tapping ceremonies in the fall and spring when students receive the most coveted honor that can come to a high school student—membership in the National Honor Society.

Mrs. Ora Van Buskirk guides the members in their various projects. During the year, they compile a scrapbook of their activities and projects. In the spring a carwash is held to obtain money for the scholarship which is awarded to a member of the Senior Class elected by the chapter. At the spring tapping, the student voted to be the most valuable N. H. S. member is honored with an award. The Society also supervises the Wita A. Bond Award to the student with the highest average in mathematics.

National Honor Society members take advantage of the spring weather by holding their annual car wash to raise money for the year's project.

Old N. H. S. members greet new members and their parents at a tea after the fall tapping.

BLACK MASQUERS HONOR OUTSTANDING DRAMA STUDENTS

The Black Masquers, honorary dramatic society, was organized in 1935 and has promoted the spirit of the theater ever since. These outstanding dramatics students are elected from the Edsonians on the basis of their participation and interest in dramatics. Mrs. Ada Hobbs, advisor, guides thespians in studying phases and personalities of the theater.

This year's project, selling personalized stationary, was most successful. The proceeds from this sale were used to furnish the Green Room with chairs and a heater. These furnishings will be available for use in Edsonian productions.

During the year, Black Masquers aid the dramatic department by helping back stage during a production and participate at community functions as ushers or stage crew.

I'll bet I have sold more stationery than you!

In their mysterious Green Room are the fall officers: Mrs. Hobbs, advisor; Mac Tilley, vice-president; Charles Tharrington, president; Wayne Pearce, treasurer; Carol Mortimer, secretary.

The National Merit Finalists are Larry High, Mary Jane Bandy, Larry Murchison, Jeannette Hughes, Jack Cummings, and David Parker.

The average student doesn't realize that it is difficult to write for a section of recognition, because only those events which happen before February 15 can be included. No intentional omission has been made, and only the necessary deadline has limited coverage of this section.

Sandy Edwards, Louis Dozier, and Ross Garris, winners of the "What Education Means to Me" essay contest, show that the achievements of RMSHS are not limited to athletics.

Mr. Cobb congratulates our top three magazine salesmen, Bruce Lea, Bob High, and Lewis Dozier.

The fourteen Morehead nominees were: Larry Modlin, Warren Cottingham, Bob Mills, Russ Norris, Larry High, Larry Murchison; second row, Neal Adkins, John Alexander, Jack Cummings, Westray Battle, Ronnie Barden, and David Parker. Not pictured are George Watson and Jeff Kincheloe.

Bob Mills and Ginger Ryals, delegates to Wildacres, discuss what they learned at the Civitan Youth Conference on Human Relations.

Mr. Edson congratulates Lewis Dozier, Sandy Edwards, and Judy Bradshaw, who had the distinction of being selected to attend the Governor's School because of their high academic achievement.

Flash! The annual Homemaker Award, made by the Betty Crocker Foundation, went to Faye Coggins . . . Miss Print for 1964 was Ginger Ryals . . . David Parker was chosen as a Morehead finalist . . . eleven members of the RMSH band were selected to go to the Eastern District Division of the All-State Band Clinic at East Carolina College. They were Ann Bell, Chris Brice, Beth Ann Boone, Jimmy Drake, Pat Hartness, Jeanette Hughes, Randy Hughes, Carolyn Looney, Ricky Miller, Susan Sodeman, and Donna Whitley.

In Memoriam

CAROL ANNE MORTIMER

July 23, 1946

March 1, 1964

"The codfish lays ten thousand eggs,
The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles
To tell you what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish,
While the humble hen we prize.
Which only goes to show you
That it pays to advertise."

The staff of the 1964 HI-NOC-AR wishes to express sincere appreciation to all in the community, school, administration, and faculty who helped make this publication possible. Special thanks go to our able advisors Miss Alma Murchison, Mrs. Jane White, and Mr. Price Coursey of Charlotte Engraving Company.

The 1964 HI-NOC-AR is to be read, looked at, or in any other way enjoyed by its readers, for it is for these readers that we publish such an annual. We of the staff have covered the past year at Senior High in a way that we feel will make its memory a permanent one. This is our goal.
